On October 31, 2022, at approximately 8:08 a.m., I was conducting routine patrol in my fully marked patrol vehicle in the area of Marion Avenue and Duval Street.

While at the stop light at Marion and Duval, I observed a white male enter the crosswalk travelling west bound across Marion Avenue when the traffic control device indicated not to walk. As the man continued through the cross walk, I observed what appeared to be a silver (chrome) pistol with a white grip in his back right pocket.

I stopped the man later identified as James S. Hodges (W/M DOB: ██████████) in front of 131 W Duval Street which was at the other side of the cross walk. As I approached James and attempted to identify what was in his back pocket, James continued to turn away from me. James indicated that the object was a walking stick, however, would not provide a clear view of the object. At that time, Sgt. Harrison also arrived on scene.

I asked James to provide his name and date of birth. James refused, stating I had no reason to request his information. James then listed that I was only allowed to request his identification if he was in the act of committing a crime, about to commit a crime, or had already committed a crime. I again notified James that I was conducting an investigation and requested that he identified himself. James again refused. At that time, James was placed into handcuffs.

I was then able to identify the object in James back right pocked as a folded up walking stick, both silver and white in color was observable as it hung out of his pocket.

Next, asked James where his wallet or identification was located. James stated refused to notify where his identification was located. I then conducted a pat down of James' person and located his FL I.D. in his front left pocket.

Sgt. Harrison asked James if he was legally blind. James confirmed that he was. Sgt. Harrison then asked James why he wasn't using his walking stick. James looked up at the sky and indicated that he didn't need it in daylight. Simultaneously, James advised he used the walking stick this morning as he walked to the court house for jury duty. It should be noted that the weather at the time contact was made with James was extremely overcast and foggy. Vehicles passing by still had headlights turned on.

James was found to be in violation of FL Statute 843.02, by obstructing the ongoing investigation when he repeatedly refused to allow identification of the object in his pocket as well as refusing to identify himself. James was placed under arrest for Resisting without Violence and transported to the Columbia County Detention Facility without incident.
